

COLLECTIVE INSURANCE OF BLUE CARD OF Komerční banka, a. s. – INFORMATION LEAFLET

Komerční banka, a. s., and its daughter company Komerční pojišťovna, a. s., prepared a collective product that will provide you with certainty that any adverse situation will not endanger the future of you and your loved ones.

When you receive your Blue Credit VISA Card, you may be automatically accepted in the collective insurance. You are automatically included into the collective insurance of KB's Blue Cards if you meet the following conditions:

- age at the entry of the insured (client) is limited to 18 - 55 years. The insurance is automatically terminated by elapse of the day preceding the 60th birthday of the insured.
- according to the insurance terms and conditions for the collective insurance of KB's Blue Credit Cards, the insured (client) must not satisfy the criteria of the "Uninsurable person" definition.

The premiums are then paid by Komerční banka, a. s., on your behalf.

The insured is included into the collective insurance of KB Blue Credit Cards upon entering into the Personal Credit Card Contract if s/he meets the conditions for admission stipulated in the Contract as of this date. The insurance begins at the moment of the first use of the loan.

This insurance is principally governed by Act No. 37/2004 Coll., the Insurance Contract Act, the Civil Code, insurance terms and conditions for collective insurance of KB's Blue Credit cards (to be requested at branches of Komerční banka, a. s.) and the legislation of the Czech Republic applies to it.

The collective insurance tied to the provided credit account includes:

▪ Insurance against death

In case of the death of the insured, the insurance company settles the outstanding amount of the principal after the expiry of the three-month waiting period from the insurance commencement. In case of death due to an accident, the insurance indemnity shall be provided immediately. If the insured dies by suicide, the insurance company shall not provide any insurance indemnity. The insurance is terminated by the death of the insured.

▪ Insurance against total disability

The insurance company shall provide insurance indemnity if, within the duration of the insurance, however, no sooner than after 2 years following the insurance commencement, you were granted the 3rd-grade disability pension. It is not requested to meet the two-year condition if the 3rd-grade disability pension was exclusively granted as a consequence of an accident. The insurance indemnity shall be paid out in a lump sum in the amount of the unpaid principal of the loan.

▪ Insurance against inability to work

If you are incapable of working for a period of time longer than 2 months (i.e. deferred period), the insurance company shall provide insurance indemnity for each month of the inability to work in the amount of a monthly loan instalment after the expiry of the deferred period. The right to insurance indemnity arises after the expiry of the waiting period, which is 3 months, and starts on the day of the insurance commencement. The insurance against inability to work of the insured is terminated by the total payment of insurance indemnity for 24 months of the inability to work or by the insured's being granted the 1st-grade, 2nd-grade or 3rd grade disability pension or an extraordinary retirement pension (see PP, art. 5, paragraph 5.4.).

▪ Insurance against loss of job

In the case of loss of job due to organisational reasons (i.e. a notice given by the employer pursuant to Section 52 (1) a) to c) of the Labour Code), the insurance company shall provide insurance indemnity for each month of your unemployment, however, for the period of 4 months maximum. The right to insurance indemnity arises after the expiry of the six-month waiting period (i.e. the period from the insurance commencement or from the commencement of each new employment) and the two-month deferred period (i.e. the period after the termination of employment). The amount of the monthly loan instalment is set in the amount of the stipulated monthly instalment. The employee must notify the insurer of the commencement of new employment and prove it in writing.

For the above mentioned risks it applies that: The part of the principal or the part of the stipulated monthly instalment incurred by using the loan for credit card transactions carried out after the occurrence of the insured event shall not be included in the insurance indemnity.

The insurance is terminated at the moment of:

- termination of the Personal Credit Card Contract
- reaching the age of 60 years
- death of the insured
- payment of indemnity from the insurance against total disability
- refusal to provide insurance indemnity
- withdrawal of consent to the insured's sensitive data processing
